

In Memory Giving:

- ✚ At times of sadness, sometimes it is comforting to do something positive to remember your loved one.
- ✚ Flowers are often used to pay a mark of respect at a funeral but lots of families request a donation in lieu of flowers in honour of their loved one.
- ✚ There are a few ways in which you can support Cheshire Ireland in memory of your loved one.
- ✚ If you would like to donate or fundraise in memory of someone special to you, there are many ways you can choose.
- ✚ These are just some of the ways of bringing together family, friends and colleagues to remember, pay tribute and celebrate their precious memories.

In Memory Collection at Funeral

- ✚ You can request in the Death Notices for sympathisers to send us their 'In Memory Gift' using the following: "We kindly request donations in lieu of flowers to Cheshire Ireland' and you can select any of the donate options.

Please know that all gifts will be acknowledged.

Regular Monthly Donation in Memory Gift

Why not mark an anniversary or birthday or special date close to your heart by setting up a Regular in Memory Gift? You can donate to us on the date of your loved ones passing by:

- ✚ Set up a monthly donation by card or bank transfer (IBAN) on our donate page
- ✚ We are in the process of setting up a Regular Donation Form – updates to follow

Fundraise in Memory

- ✚ If you would like to organise a fundraiser in honour of your loved one, you can take part in an event or challenge. There are so many ways to fundraise, from a simple bake sale to taking on a challenge in their memory.
- ✚ You can check out the various events and fundraisers at fundraising@cheshire.ie
- ✚ Need help with any of the above? Call Deirdre on 0873682016 or email: deirdre.lennon@cheshire.ie
